MOB LYNCHES THREE NEGROES

Springfield, Mo., Scene of Desperate Lynching Bee

HANGED AND THEN CREMATED

TWO WERE ACCUSED OF RAVISHING
WHITE WOMAN

The Third Was a Murder Suspect—
Fourteen Prisoners Escape When Jail is Battered Down.

Springfield, Mo., April 16.—The same mob that at an early hour Sunday morning lynched Horace Duncan and James Copeland, negroes, two hours later took from jail William Allen, a young negro, and hanged him in the public square. Allen's body was later burned to ashes, as had been those of the other negroes, beneath the spot where they had been lynched. Following the dispatch of Duncan and Copeland, some one suggested that Allen and Bus Cain, two other negroes known to be in the jail, should also be lynched. The mob, bloodthirsty and wrought up to the highest pitch of excitement, readily took up the cry, and soon the charred bones of a third victim lay beneath the statue of the Goddess of Liberty. Cain escaped. Allen and Cain were being held upon suspicion of having murdered O. P. Ruark, while Duncan and Copeland were accused of assaulting Mabel Edmondson, a white domestic. Their work finally accomplished, the mob quietly dispersed.

Miss Edmondson, the attack upon whom provoked the lynching outbreak, when told of the work of vengeance said, "Served them right." Her condition is pronounced serious.

Sunday, the crowds, which had been augmented by many hundreds of persons from surrounding towns, filled the streets, making threats of further vengeance, and several companies of state militia ordered out by Governor Folk, together with 200 deputy sheriffs, were ordered here. When the mob left the jail with Copeland and Duncan 14 prisoners escaped in the excitement. Among them was Cain. But Allen was there yet, and the second mob found him hidden under a cot. He was dragged out, his hands were tied behind his back, a rope was put around his neck and he was marched down the street to the tower in the square. Two men climbed up the iron stairway and stood upon the platform, with Allen between them. One of these men, who held a lantern in his hand, faced the crowd below, and, waving his hand toward the negro, said: "Ladies and gentlemen, this is Will Allen, the man who murdered old man Ruark. What shall we do with him?" "Hang him!" cried the crowd. "Throw him overboard."

The negro stood directly above the smoldering ash heap from which the smell of burning flesh arose. But he stood erect while the man with the lantern harangued the mob and the crowd jeered at the negro. In the meantime the rope had been placed about Allen's neck, and presently the hangman caught the negro's ankles, lifted him and threw him forward over the railing. Allen turned a somersault in the air, and as the rope became taut his neck cracked like a pistol shot. The rope broke and he fell in the bed of coals on top of the other two negroes. There he kicked and floundered around until another rope was brought, thrice looped around the neck, and he was again suspended in midair. More boxes were brought, another big fire was kindled, and soon the swaying figure, now dead, fell into it, sending up a spray of live sparks. After that most of the men went home, but some men and boys stayed by the tower all night and fed the fire. When daylight broke upon the scene there remained only the blackened trunks and charred remains of the three negroes.

Five thousand persons saw the trio hanged and burned. Among the crowd of spectators were hundreds of women and children, girls and boys. In a hall overlooking the plaza an Easter dance was in progress. Its music stopped while the dancers crowded to the windows and watched the writhing black bodies and the flames that finally consumed them.

Whites and blacks are reported as having armed themselves heavily, and the negroes of the city are said to have seized 300 sticks of dynamite from a stone quarry for defense purposes.

posses if further attempt at lynching is made.

Folk After the Mob.
Jefferson City, Mo., April 16.—Governor Joseph J. Folk in a statement said: "The lynching at Springfield was a most disgraceful occurrence. Whatsoever the offense of the negroes may have been, they were entitled to punishment by law and not by a mob, and when a mob takes the law into its own hands, as this one did, any member of it is guilty of murder. I will request of the assistant attorney general to aid the prosecuting attorney of Greene county to punish the offenders, and shall offer a reward of $300 for any information that would lead to the conviction of any member of the mob."

Shot by Negro Porter.
Huntington, W. Va., April 16.—Mrs. Martha J. Bass, the divorced wife of John Farley of Gallipolis, O., was shot and killed by Charles Morrow, a colored hotel porter here. The shooting occurred at the home of Herbert Steel, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Bass. The supposition is that the porter had taken Mrs. Bass a letter and a quarrel over the presentation of the same resulted in the tragedy. Mrs. Bass had been on the street two minutes before the tragedy, and had just entered the house when the negro appeared. After the shooting the negro ran from the house with a smoking pistol in his hand and attempted to escape, but he was pursued by hundreds. When the police overtook him he had to be clubbed into submission, and was hurried off to the county jail for fear of mob violence. Mrs. Bass' 12-year-old niece was the only witness to the tragedy. Mrs. Bass came here a few weeks ago on a visit to her sister.

Deed of a Negro.
Bessemer, Ala., April 16.—John Andrews, a negro, proprietor of a livery stable here, shot and killed Taylor Johnson, a white man, and seriously wounded Will Millstead, another white man. The white men had left a horse and buggy at Andrews' stable, and about midnight when they called for it demanded that the negro hitch up for them. He refused and a general quarrel followed. During the controversy Andrews drew a gun and shot both the men.

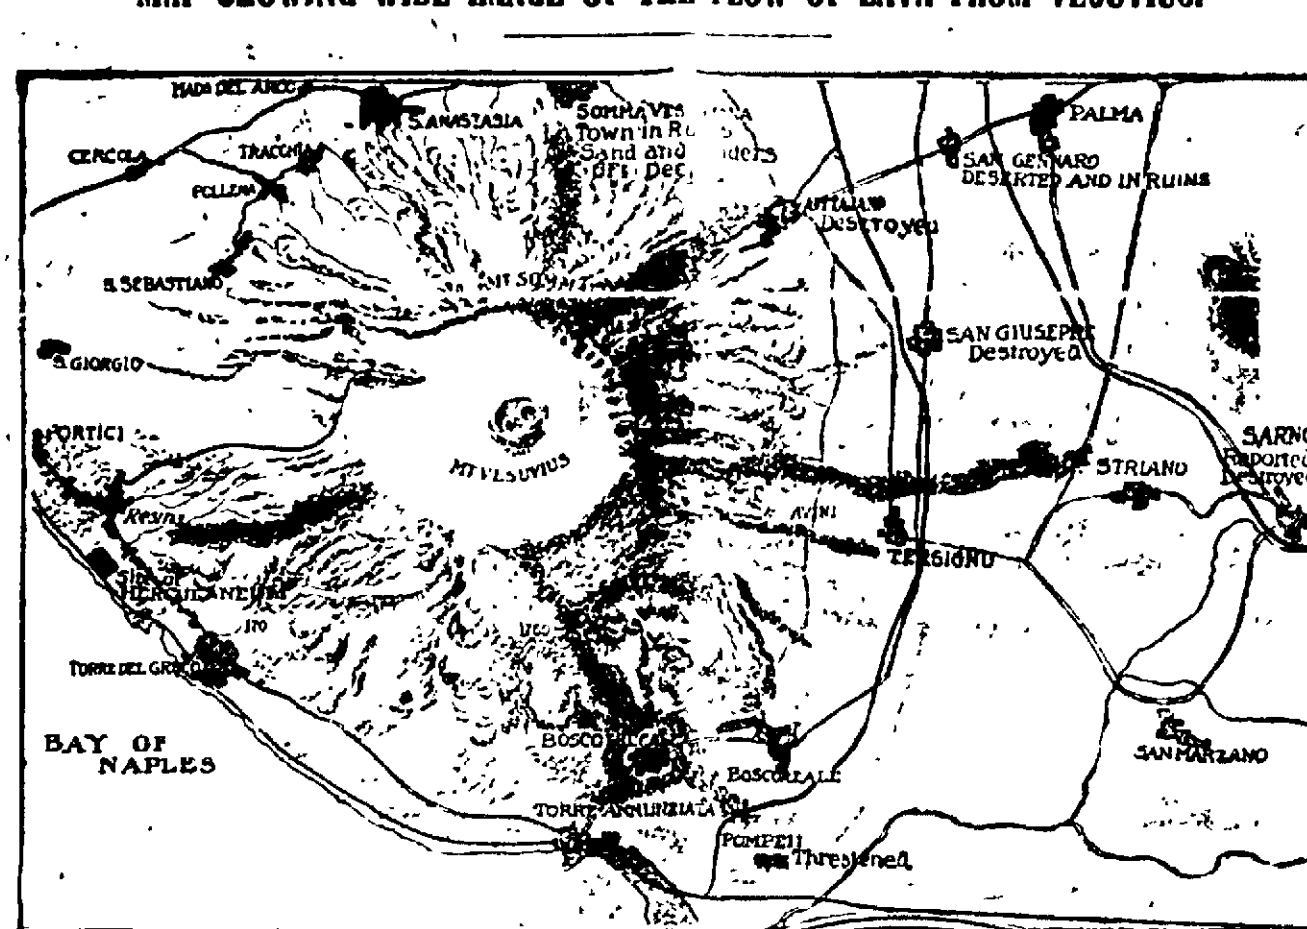

NARROWLY AVERES LYNCHING.
New York, April 16.—Robert H. Scott, a negro, narrowly escaped being lynched this morning by a mob, and only the quick arrival of the police reserves saved him. Scott had been in the employ of Thomas Maher, a wealthy contractor, but was discharged for intemperance.

This morning the negro concealed himself in the shadow of a building at Pelham and Hughes avenues, the Bronx, and lay in wait for Maher. As soon as the contractor had passed his hiding place Scott sprang out with an open razor and slashed Maher terribly. Some of the wounds in the stomach were several inches long. In the vicinity are several hotels and a crowd was running toward the spot before Scott had ended his frenzied attack. When he saw them Scott ran. Mounted Policemen Chas. Sturgess led the pursuit. He chased Scott into a house three blocks away. The negro bolted the door. The policeman hammered it in with his stick. Scott tried to attack, but a blow knocked the razor from his hand.

As soon as the crowd saw how terribly the negro had used a razor they ran toward the house. Sturgess was hammering on the door, and it was all he could do to keep the men from following him in when he broke the bolts. When the reserves arrived they used their clubs in clearing the space in front of the house. Scott was then rushed through a double line of policemen, put into the patrol wagon and hurried to the station.

Attorney General Ellis of Ohio, in letters sent out over the state, gives prosecuting attorneys ten days in which to bring suits against county officials to recover alleged excessive fees.

SAND AND ASHES

Ejected by Mount Vesuvius in Abundant Quantities.

Naples, April 16.—The somewhat threatening condition of Mount Vesuvius Saturday night having subsided with the ejection of enormous clouds of sand and ashes, the elements have begun to settle slowly again, enveloping the mountain in a thick haze, only the outline of the base being visible. Professor Matteucci, director of the royal observatory on the mountain, issued the following bulletin: "My instruments are now more calm. The emission of sand continues in their abundant quantities, and I wait serenely for a satisfactory termination of the eruption."

The gravity of the situation has now shifted to Ottajano and San Guseppe, where the recovery of the dead from the debris goes on amid the misery of thousands of homeless refugees. A sensational development occurred during the work of salvage at Ottajano when the workers unearthed two aged women, still alive but speechless, after six days' entombment.

ARRESTED FOR FIRING SHOT AT W. W. WEHRLE'S AUTOMOBILE

Thomas W. Shannon a Young Man Taken by Chief Sheridan and Detective Craver Admits Firing the Shot But Disclaims Any Criminal Intent.

What is believed to be an important murder case was made here Monday, when Captain J. A. Kraver of the Perkins Union Detective Agency of Pittsburgh, arrested Thomas W. Shannon, a young man of about 21 years of age, of near Clay Lick, on the charge of shooting at Mr. William Wehrle while that gentleman in company with Edw. Thomas, was riding in East Newark in his automobile on Friday. When asked regarding the affair at the time of his arrest Shannon admitted that he fired the shot but denied that it was fired at either of the men in the auto and also that it hit the machine. He attempted to use the excuse that the shooting was done in a sort of playful mood.

It was learned that the prisoner had generally had a reputation about Clay Lick and has been called to account for raising disturbances and breaking up religious meetings at and near that place.

It is sincerely believed that the man now being added to a member of the gang, a greater part of which is now lodged in the city jail, which was instrumental in the killing of the police, Homer Love of Hanover. The arrest is considered by the authorities as an important one. Chief Sheridan and Captain Kraver having worked earnestly on the case, especially since the attempt on the life of Mr. Wehrle.

When searched at the city prison, four .32 caliber cartridges were found on him, and a pocket book with $50 in it, and a letter to a woman.

Troubles and disputes had arisen between them. This led to a practical separation, and Mrs. Annet started to earn her living. Sunday at the noon hour Annet asked her to put an end to their differences and said he would kill himself if she did not come to him. Mrs. Annet, however, told him he had been drinking and that he should go to bed. He then took a bottle containing carbolic acid. He drank it before his wife, who threw herself upon him could get the bottle. He fell unconscious to the floor, and about 10 o'clock Sunday night the City Health Annet died on the way, and his body was then taken to the morgue.

BY MAIL

They Arranged for the Duel and It
Began When They Met—Both Are Dead.

New Orleans, La., April 16.—After arranging to meet at Rosetta, Miss, and shoot at each other until one or both were killed, John Watson, of Rosetta, and John Ashby, of Knoxville, Miss., met on the depot platform and fired 20 or 30 shots at each other. As the result both men are dead and their bodies are fairly riddled with bullets.

The duel was arranged by mail. As soon as Ashby stepped from the train, Watson, both men, each having a revolver, commenced firing. They had been on and terms for a year, having quarreled over railroad matters at the time that Ashby was in charge of the station at Rosetta. Both belonged to prominent families and it is probable that a serious feud will develop from the duel.

SEVENTEEN SHIPS

Bring Over Twenty Thousand Immigrants in Two Days—New High Water Mark.

New York, April 16.—A new high water mark in the tide of American immigration will be set when the aliens who arrived in this port Sunday on nine European steamers and those due today on eight big ships are permitted to land. On the vessels which arrived yesterday were 11,839 immigrants. The steamers due today are expected to add at least a like number to the array of European immigrants seeking new homes in this country.

A feature of the immigration arrivals is the fact that 975 of the 2,000 foreigners brought in on the steamer Germania from Bremen are consigned to Baltimore, to which port the steamer will sail.

Who are on Strike.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 16.—The state mounted police were called upon at midnight to quell a serious riot at Geopetown, near here, during which four men and one woman were shot and two men stabbed, while a store was dynamited. The officers were attacked by a mob armed with revolvers and stones and repelled with their revolvers, being armed with two six shooters each. They shot Joseph Witoski, his wife and two unknown men who are now hidden by their friends. They fled for their lives, the mob after them. The "Cossacks" as the state police are termed, arrested several men, dispersing the mob. One of the prisoners, Felix Stanchek, was severely stabbed in a fight before the police arrived. Mining troubles and the Easter celebration are assigned as causes of the trouble. Reports from the anthracite region show many minor disturbances as a result of the holiday. Miners' union officials are strongly urging the men to conduct their lives in an orderly manner.

New York, April 16.—A double tragedy, in which mother and son were killed through an electrical apparatus used to operate a chicken incubator, the invention of the young man himself, occurred at Croton Falls, Westchester county. The victims of the accident were Daniel Jeungst, Jr., 30, and his mother, Mrs. Anna Jeungst, 50. While experimenting with his incubator, by which he hoped to hatch 500 chickens at a time, Jeungst attempted to shut off the electric current, and in reaching for the switch caught hold of a live wire and 3,000 volts of electricity shot through his body, killing him instantly. His mother, realizing that her son was in peril, thoughtlessly grabbed the wire to pull it away. She too was killed instantly.

CUTTING AFFRAY WAS SERIOUS

AN ITALIAN SLASHED BILLPOSTER
SMITH AS RESULT OF QUARREL.

The Injured Man Was Taken to the Newark Sanitarium—Mr. Rees
Was Held Up.

In a cutting scrape on the south side of the square Saturday a few minutes before midnight, George Smith of Philadelphia, a bill poster employed by the Rugg System, was dangerously cut on the left side of the face and the back of the head, by Joseph Charon, an Italian employed as a sand cutter at the Wehrle foundry. In the fight there were three other Italians engaged, Frank Flora, Joe Grammel and John Lopriano, and through the prompt work of the police the quarrel is now confined to the city prison awaiting the results of Smith's wounds.

There are several stories of the assault and in all of them it seems that the Italians were provoked by Smith and in the fight which followed the cutting was done. The police give the following version of the affray.

The four Italians, under arrest were playing pool in the pool room adjoining the Newark Liquor Company's store. Smith who had evidently been drinking some, entered the place and sauntered back to the table. He tried to get into the pool game, saying that he could teach them to play the game. The foreigners refused to accept the offer of the young man and he left the place. He waited on the outside until the four men appeared and then accosted one and accused him of calling him a villain. The lie was passed and it is claimed that Smith struck one of the Italians a blow with his fist. In the fight which followed immediately, Smith grappled with Flora and the two rolled on the sidewalk. Charon pulled his knife and struck Smith one swiping blow, cutting a gash on the cheek from near the point of the chin on the left side, upward toward the top of the ear, through the ear and towards the back of the head into the hair. The ear was severed completely and when the police arrived, Smith was bleeding profusely and suffering considerable pain. An ambulance was called and the injured man was at once taken to the Sanitarium where Dr. B. F. Barnes took 45 stitches in the big wound in his head.

The police after disposing of Smith at once set about to locate the Italians. There were but few eye witnesses to the cutting and no one could furnish an accurate description of the foreigners.

Several raids were made on cars belonging to the B. & O. company where foreign laborers are housed, but no one answering the description of the four men could be located. Captain Robert Bell and Officers Dailey, Howard, Brooks and Jamison worked on the case all night and at 5.30 Sunday morning the house in the rear of 259 East Main street was raided and the three Italians who were Charon's companions were put under arrest.

All day Sunday the officers searched for Charon, but not until 6 o'clock Sunday night was he apprehended. Chief Sheridan with Officer Ziegler found the man on East Main street near the Orphans' Home awaiting an interurban car for Zanesville.

When locked in the city prison, Charon admitted that he cut Smith and said that Smith had Flora down when the cutting occurred. The man was charged with assault to kill. Attorney George B. Smythe has been retained by the foreigners as counsel and was endeavoring to furnish bond for Charon's companions. Charon will be given a hearing Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock when the three companions will appear as witnesses.

Elmer Rees Held Up.

Of late Newark has attained quite a reputation as a footpad town, there having been several holdups in the city during the past week. Sunday night as Mr. Elmer Rees was walking along North Fourth street in the vicinity of the "Whistle Point," two men stepped out of the shadow of some trees directly in front of him, and each pointing a big revolver at him, commanded him to throw up his hands. After he had thrown up his hands, one of the men said to the other, "Have you got him covered," after being assured that he had proceeded to go through Mr. Rees' pockets, securing one dollar and some small change. Just about this time Mrs. Samuel Sachs, who was returning home, approached the men, when one of them said, "Here comes a woman," and pushing Rees to one side, they started rapidly down the street and soon disappeared. The matter was reported to the police authorities, and several officers repaired to the vicinity and spent several hours in the hope of catching the fellows. However, no one appeared and the night police were unable to locate any suspicious fellows in the city.

AMUSEMENTS

John W. Vogel, manager of the Hippodrome, ran up against a pretty tough story teller and before the week last week out in Indiana when he wished to meet again. He was standing at the door at the time, when he was approached by a mysterious stranger. The stranger of clothes. "But, my boy," Vogel wore coat clothes and had a lavishly supply of jewelry. Approaching Mr. Vogel, he said: "I want to go in and see the show."

"Tell your troubles to the man in the box office," remarked the manager.

"No, I want a pass," insisted the stranger.

"Where do you come in for a pass," asked Vogel, eying his visitor suspiciously.

"Sh-h" hissed the stranger, throwing back the lapel of his coat and displaying some nine or ten badges. "I'm a detective." Then he went on to explain that he was a full paid member of several private detective agencies that advertise regularly for competent "operators" in all parts of the country.

Even after this explanation Vogel refused to give up the pass.

Then, waxing wroth, "the detective" explained that the different badges and credentials had cost him in the neighborhood of $200, and that each agency had guaranteed him that a display of its badge was equal to an admission to any place of amusement.

"Well," said Vogel, jokingly, "I'll tell you what to do. You pay me for your seats here under compulsion and then sue the agency for the amount."

This struck the detective as being a fair proposition, and he paid over two dollars.

Thinking to have some fun with the man, Vogel chided him on his lack of business sense, saying: "Now, you belong to nine different agencies, why not have a few small bottles and a price list and then sue the agencies for the 'compulsion money'?"

The detective grasped the idea, and immediately after the show called on Vogel to help blow in the "compulsion money." During the first the detec-

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How to Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours. A sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. If it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble, too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects that itching to hold water and scalding pain in passing, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Ringhamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Ringhamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

him short with: "Tut tut! You've just admitted to me the fact that I've been swindled. Those badges don't admit to any show. Now I'm going to sue each concern for the money I'll have to pay out for tickets, and all this expense comes out of what they'll have to pay me—see?"

An hour later, as Vogel was retiring to his apartments in his private car, the "Flora" he turned to his friend and said: "Old man, let me have your name and address, I may need an overcoat later, and besides, I play a return date here next season."

Vogel's minstrels will be the attraction at the Auditorium Wednesday evening.

OLD SORES OFTEN LEAD TO CANCER

Whenever a sore or ulcer does not heal and shows signs of becoming chronic, it should arouse suspicion, because many of these places lead to cancer. It may appear as an ordinary sore at first, and is given treatment as such, with some simple salve, wash or plaster, with the hope that the place will heal, but the real seat of the trouble is in the blood and cannot be reached by external remedies, and soon the sore will return. After awhile the deadly poison begins to eat into the surrounding flesh and the ulcer spreads rapidly, becoming more offensive and alarming until at last the sufferer finds he is afflicted with cancer. Cancerous ulcers often start from a boil, wart, mole or pimple, which has been bruised or roughly handled, showing that the taint is in the blood, perhaps inherited. Another cause for non-healing ulcers and sores is the remains of some constitutional disease or the effects of a long spell of sickness. S. S. S. goes down to the very root of the trouble and cures so thoroughly that there is never any sign of the trouble in after years. As soon as the system gets under the influence of S. S. S. the place begins to improve, the discharge gradually grows less, the inflammation leaves, the flesh resumes its healthy color, and soon the sore is well, because every vestige of the cause has been removed from the blood. "WILL SELL," SAYS COLLIER; "LEAVE DEED," SAYS COURT.

New York, April 16.—"While" Collier, the comedian, appeared before Judge Kelly Thursday as a witness in his own behalf in the suit brought against him by his wife, Louise Collier, to compel him to sell certain property.

When the Colliers' marital troubles began last year Collier agreed to pay his wife $100 a week for her support and to sell the property, giving his wife one-half the proceeds.

The hundred dollars a week has been paid regularly, but the property has not been sold, and it is on this account that the suit has been brought. Mr. Collier testified that he was perfectly willing to sell the St. James property but that he had not as yet been able to secure a purchaser who was willing to pay $20,000 for it, which he devalues at its value.

"Will you sell this property as soon as you can get an offer of $20,000 or more?" asked the judge.

The actor explained that he intended going to Australia within the next few weeks and that he would remain there several months, having made arrangements for a theatrical tour.

The lawyers for the witness and Mrs. Collier consulted as to the disposition of the property while Mr. Collier was away. Upon the advice of Judge Kelly, it was decided to hold a further hearing, at which the value of the country seat will be determined.

NEWARK CHURCHES OBSERVE EASTER

ELABORATE MUSICAL PROGRAMS WERE RENDERED ON SUNDAY.

The Liturgical Churches. Especially, Eisted the Lenten Season With Impressive Services.

Easter was most appropriately observed in all of the churches of the city Sunday, special musical programs of value being heard over the city. At St. Francis de Sales, the Second Presbyterian, Trinity, St. Paul's, and the First M. E., especially attractive programs were given.

At the Second Presbyterian church the choir consisting of Mrs. C. W. Miller, soprano, Miss Elsie Hirschberg, contralto, J. W. Horner, tenor, and J. Howard Jones, basso, assisted by Miss Mabel Phillips, mezzo soprano, under the direction of Miss Florence King, organist and chorister, gave one of the best rendered Easter programs heard in this city for some time. Gault's cantata, "Ruth" was given, and with an effect which was highly appreciated by the immense throng which crowded the church. Between the first and second parts of the program the pastor, Rev. T. A. Cosgrove, delivered his address. The entire program was a compliment to the ability of Miss King, and also that of the soloists taking part. The choral numbers were especially well sung.

At Trinity, Organist V. R. Nold gave an excellent program at all services. At St. Francis de Sales during the 10 o'clock mass the following program was rendered under the direction of Miss Helen Early and Miss Kate Kelly:

Vidi Aquilam.
Kyrie, Gounod.
Gloria, Gounod.
Credo, Gounod.
Offertory, Regina Coeli, Girza.
Sanctus, Gounod.
Benedictus, Gounod.
Agnus Dei, Gounod.
Strike the Cymbals, Puccini.
Organist C. H. Ould of St. Paul's, together with a large chorus and soloists gave a delightful two part program in connection with the service. The Fifth street Baptist also gave a fine musical program at both the morning and evening services. Miss Freda Pfeffer, director.

There was a glad Easter Day at Plymouth Congregational church, and although nature temporarily was overcast with clouds, signs everywhere indicated her march toward bloom. The church was artistically decorated with palms, ferns and opening lilies, together with tulips and carnations, reminding us that the most beautiful things in nature are symbols of the supremacy of the spiritual life in man. An unusually large and interesting Sunday school session prepared the way for the morning session. At this hour one of the grandest and most impressive services ever held in the church took place, while nature was manifesting forth her glory and glad hearts were rejoicing in commemoration of the victory of "The Lord of Life and Death," over the grave. 37 individuals, ranging in age from youth to mature life took upon themselves the vows of the church, consecrating themselves to the noble and exalted service of the Christian life. This morning service closed with the communion, a fit climax to the glorious service.

The services at St. Francis de Sales church were characterized by great beauty. The altar decorations were simple, tasteful, complete. The music—a special feature was rendered in a manner reflecting great credit upon all assisting in it. It consisted of the beautiful Gounod's mass, Georgia's Regina Coeli's and "Strike the Cymbal." The mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. O'Boylan, and the sermon was fitting for the occasion. The whole scene following upon the solemnities of Holy week, was impressive. The spirit of the gladsome Easter tide seemed to prevail, laden anew with that message so pregnant with meaning to every true worshiper for the world over—"He is risen." The lilies—those emblems of purity—so appropriate to the occasion, seemed to bow with peaceful reverence while the mellow altar lights spread a halo of glory around as if conspiring in offering up their silent "Gloria" of incense together with the worshipping throng.

Y. M. C. A. Easter Service.

Taylor hall was well filled yesterday afternoon. It was an open meeting and many were out to hear the special Easter music by the Denison Glee club and address by Rev. J. A. Bennett. The following are some of the numbers rendered by the Glee club: "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," Ambrose.
"My Faith Looks Up to Thee," Cusance.
Solo, "The Resurrection," Shelley—Mr. J. Harold Thomas.
"The King of Love," Shelley.
Solo—Mr. T. J. Bolger.
"Abide With Me"—Dow.
The Glee club did not have their full number present, and the splendid manner in which they rendered this program, served to give one a very adequate idea of the excellence of their work when their ranks are complete.

Rev. Mr. Bennett's address was strong and masterfully delivered. It abounded in a wealth of helpfulness and food for thought. All were made to feel that indeed the "Supremacy of Love" is complete.

Interurbans Merged.

Incorporation papers for the Indiana, Columbus & Eastern Traction Co. with a capitalization of $1,000,000, are expected to be issued in Columbus today. This is the new merger of the Schoepf-Dolan-Morgan syndicate, the owners of the Zanesville Railway, Light and Power Co., and also the Columbus, Newark and Zanesville Interurban. This new company will own and control Interurban lines from this city to Terre Haute, Indiana.

The lines included in this merger are the Tucker-Anthony and the Appleyard roads. This merger under one operating head has long been expected, but W. Kesley Schoepf, president of the syndicate, has been delayed in the matter.

Following this incorporation of the combined roads it is expected a new Interurban will be built from Dayton to Terre Haute, it being announced that all negotiations for the purchase of the Dayton & Western from Dayton to Richmond, Ind., are off. It is expected that soon an organization of the new company will occur, resulting in the selection of general and district managers, superintendents and agents.

RATE DEBATE.

Senator Spooner to Discuss Points Raised by Senator Bailey.

Washington, April 16.—Speeches on the railroad rate bill will be the feature in the United States senate the present week. Notwithstanding the assurances to the contrary which were given by senators last week, there is no immediate prospect for securing an agreement upon a time for voting upon the bill. Senator Tillman has stated that Senator LaFollette would probably be ready to proceed Tuesday, but the senator himself is not apparently prepared to say whether he will or not. If he does not take the floor Tuesday he will ask to be heard later in the week. It is understood he will take advanced ground for stringent legislation. It is not improbable that the junior Wisconsin senator will be followed immediately by his colleague, Senator Spooner, who will devote his special attention to the points raised by Senator Bailey, and will reply to the Texas senator's contention that congress has a right to limit the injunctive powers of the lower United States court.

REFUSED, THOUGH ON HIS DEATHBED,

To Divulge the Names of Those Who Stabbed Him, Did the Blacksmith at Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, O., April 16.—With a half dozen stab wounds penetrating his abdomen and upper part of the body, and his face nearly slashed to ribbons, Michael Albright, a blacksmith of 521 Klotter avenue, lay mortally wounded in the City Hospital on Sunday night, absolutely refusing to tell the police or any of his friends the names of the four or five men he says attacked him.

With death staring him in the face, Albright declared that it was all right that they had "got him good," and he wouldn't tell the names of the men because he had slept and eaten with them.

Albright has been in trouble on different occasions. About three years ago he was shot and seriously wounded by Henry Altz, a saloon keeper on Klotter avenue. He is 28 years old and unmarried. For some time he has been working at odd jobs about the West End.

Last night about 8:30 o'clock Albright staggered into the drug store at Spring Grove and Harrison avenues. He was covered with blood from head to foot, and his mouth and lips were hanging by a shred of flesh from a long cut in his face. He wanted his wounds dressed by the druggist and the latter did his best to staunch the flow of blood, but sent in a call for a patrol wagon. Patrol No. 5 took the wounded man to the City Hospital. There it was learned that two stab wounds had penetrated deep into the abdomen, while there was another stab wound on the left side under the heart. There were two long cuts on his right shoulder while his face was sliced in a number of places.

He refused to tell the physicians or police even where the affray had occurred. He was immediately sent to a ward and his wound pronounced so dangerous that an operation was ordered at once. Detective Plung visited the hospital, but Albright though suffering intensely, would not give the police any information.

"Never you mind," he said. "There were four or five fellows, and they jumped me. I have slept and eaten with them and I ain't going to tell their names. If they crank me, all right."

From Albright's brother, however, Lieutenant Slatery and Sergeant Werner of the Fifth District, learned that one of the men alleged to have participated in the affray was a man said to be George Hinrod. The police investigation developed that the cutting had occurred in the rear of the L. H. McCammon Bros. sewer pipe foundry and yards at 1276 Harrison avenue. There were about six men hanging about the place all afternoon and evening "rushing the can" and the fight is supposed to have arisen during a drunken quarrel. All the men are said to have been employed there.

Don't miss the moonlight program at the Crescent Tuesday evening.

TOURIST CARS POPULAR.

The idea that an inferior class of people patronize the tourist sleepers is an error. On many trips only the best class of travelers are found. They are merely men and women of good sense who would rather travel to California in this manner and save a large sum of money to be used elsewhere. It is beginning to be understood that it is by no means unnecessary for the traveler to spend a large sum of money to enjoy a trip to the Pacific coast.

If you cross the continent in one of the tourist sleepers of the Union Pacific you will enjoy your trip and save considerable money. Inquire of W. H. Connor, G. A., 55 East Fourth street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

GRANVILLE NEWS

Granville, O., April 16.—On Sunday special Easter services were held in the Baptist church, both morning and evening. The church decorations were beautiful and delightful Easter music was furnished by the choir, assisted by Mrs. M. M. King. Mr. Arthur L. Jordon and Mr. Orley See rendered beautiful violin music at the morning service. Dr. C. J. Baldwin, pastor of the church, preached both at the morning and evening service.

Catarrhal Gastritis

"For two years I was in a very bad condition. I was treated by a number of eminent physicians for chronic catarrhal gastritis and dilatation of the stomach, and obtained no relief. I grew gradually worse, my breathing was so difficult at times that I thought I would die. My heart was in very bad condition from poor circulation and pressure of the dilated stomach. I decided it was only a matter of a very short time with me. I was advised to try Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure, and before I had finished taking one bottle of the medicine I felt like a new being. I took eight bottles of the medicine, and am entirely cured, for a matter of about $3.00 in the face of two hundreds spent in the two years before without relief."

"THE BITTER ONE," HIS WIFE AND HIS SIGNATURE IN RUSSIAN

"The Russian people are aroused now as they never have been."

Maxim Gorky, his wife and signature

New York, April 16.—"America! America! I have been waiting and longing to see this wonderful country, and now one of the desires of my life is fulfilled," spoke Maxim Gorky, author and revolutionist, as the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse came into sight of Long Island this week.

With him was his wife, a woman of unusually attractive presence, seemingly more French than Russian. She assumed an air of protection over her husband and pleaded earnestly that he might be excused from receiving the deputations that had come aboard to welcome him. Tall and raw-boned, with a face of marked strength, the revolutionist wore an air of timidity when first encountered that ill fitted with his general appearance. Quite devoid of self-consciousness, it was only with difficulty that he could be persuaded to talk about himself or his work.

When the vessel had docked and Gorky started to leave the pier he walked into the midst of thousands shouting, cheering, frantic Russians, whose enthusiasm was so great that a squad of police was necessary to clear a path.

"We are not anarchists—the people interested in this movement of which I am a small part," said Gorky. "We are seeking reforms that must and will come. The Russian government of today is nothing less than anarchy and its members anarchists. There is no law, no order; it is anarchy pure and simple under the guise of organized government, in which those who are not absolutely debased are kept in entire ignorance of the true condition of affairs in our distressed country."

Gorky speaks five varieties of the Russian tongue, and understands, although to no great extent, French and German. His wife speaks Russian, German, French, Italian, and English. Gorky's illness is due to his imprisonment for political offenses last year.

ARBOR DAY.

In his proclamation "nabbing" Friday, April 20, as Arbor Day, Governor Patterson said:

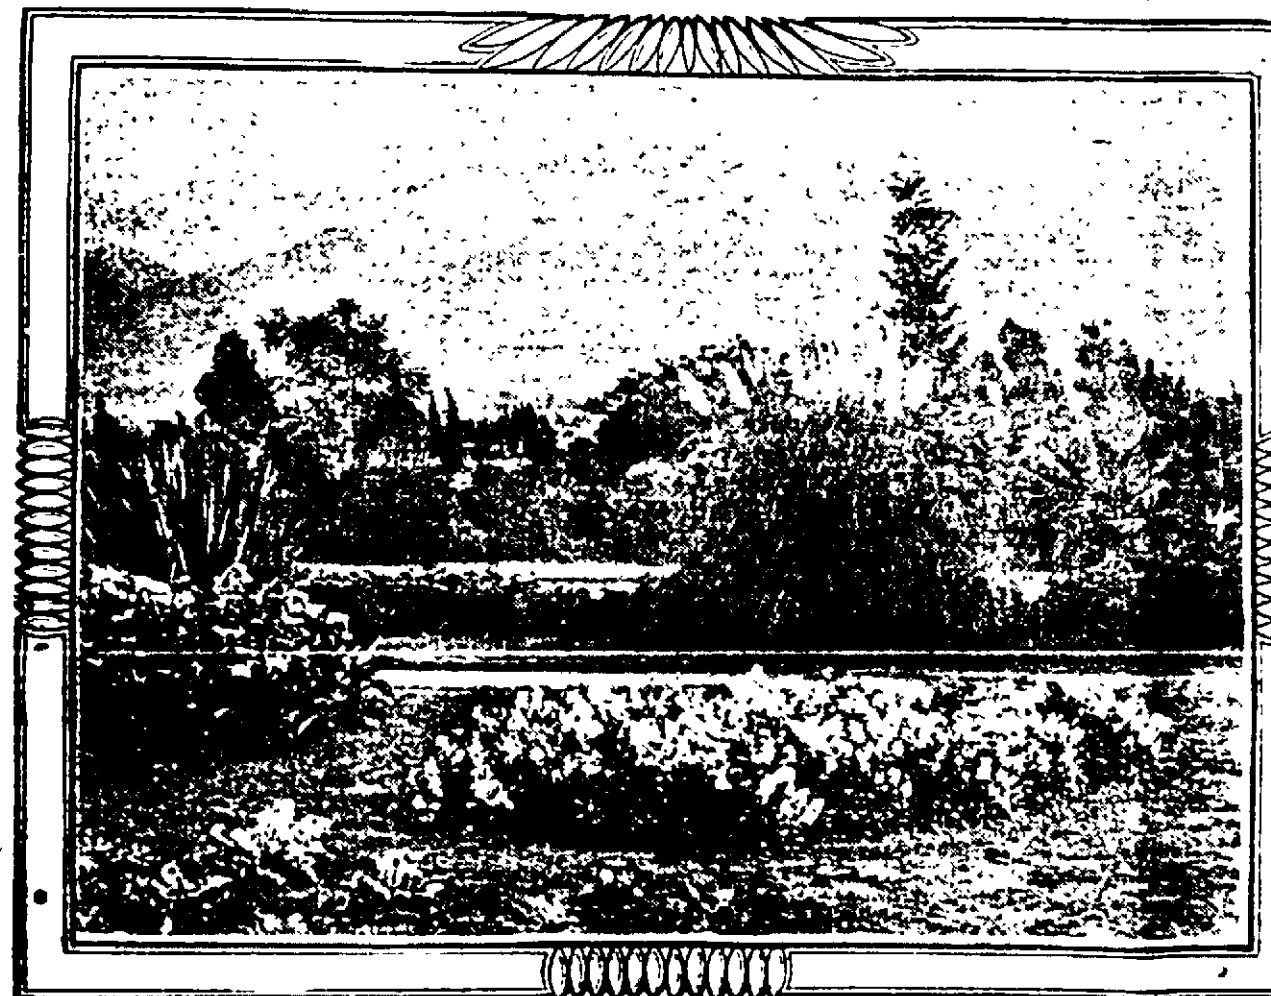

"The adorning of our highways, public parks and private grounds by the planting of trees, shrubs and vines, should be encouraged by public authority and all institutions of learning throughout the state, because of their usefulness and beauty, and their tendency to preserve our water supply and maintain our climate conditions."

It is to be hoped that there will be a generous observance of Arbor Day this year in the country as well as in the towns and cities. Practical forestry, by which the country will be forested as it should be, is what we want, and what the proper observance of the day will sooner or later bring about.

View of Rockefeller Estate Near Pasadena, Cal.

From Pasadena, Cal., comes the information that John D. Rockefeller has purchased the Reed estate, in that city, considered one of the most residences in the State, and it is said that he will spend, at least, two months each year in California. It was in the Reed house that Helen Hunt Jackson wrote "Ramona." No photograph of the Reed mansion has ever been taken, but the accompanying view is from the east front of the house, showing the coast range in the distance. The present mansion house is to be torn down and a more portentous structure erected.

CORDIAL INVITATION

ADDRESSED TO WORKING GIRLS

Miss Barrows Tells How Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Helps Working Girls.

Girls who work are particularly susceptible to female disorders, especially those who are obliged to stand on their feet from morning until night in stores or factories.

Day in and day out the girl toils, and she is often the bread-winner of the family. Whether she is sick or well, whether it rains or shines, she must get to her place of employment, perform the duties exacted of her—smile and be agreeable.

Among this class the symptoms of female diseases are early manifest by weak and aching backs, pain in the lower limbs and lower part of the stomach. In consequence of frequent wetting of the feet, periods become painful and irregular, and frequently there are faint and dizzy spells, with loss of appetite, until life is a burden. All these symptoms point to a derangement of the female organism which can be easily and promptly cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Abby F. Barrows, Nelsonville, Athens Co., Ohio, tells what this great medicine did for her. She writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I feel it my duty to tell you the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have done for me. Before I took them I was very nervous, had dull headaches, pain in back, and periods were irregular. I had been to several doctors, and they did me no good.

"Your medicine has made me well and strong. I can do most any kind of work without complaint, and my periods are all right.

"I am in better health than I ever was, and I can do all sorts of housework, and I recommend your advice and medicine to all who suffer."

"It is to such girls that Mrs. Pinkham holds out a helping hand and extends a cordial invitation to correspond with her. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Her long record of success in treating women's ills makes her letters of advice of untold value to every ailing working girl. Address, Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass."

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY TO MEET

Attention is called to the meeting of the Newark Civic Improvement League meeting this evening, at which addresses will be delivered by Miss Anna M. Worthing, Clarence H. White, Mrs. Cora Kellenberger, and Mayor S. M. McCleery. The object of this meeting is such that all citizens of the city who desire improvement in all municipal lines should co-operate in the work to which the league is devoted. The correction of a large number of small abuses produces a decided improvement as a net result. It is hoped that no one will refuse to join the league, and engage in the work which it has on hand, in the fear that there is nothing to do. There are a great variety of things which should have the attention of just such a movement as this, extending from the prevention of needless noises to the safeguarding of the rights of the people in issuing franchises to corporations—extending from the cleanliness of the streets and the disappearance of the city by unsightly signs and poles to the disposal of garbage and the proper construction of sanitary sewers.

We bespeak a good attendance at the meeting tonight of the persons who are interested in the purposes of the league. Its success depends on the co-operation of the citizens who are in sympathy with its purposes.

STIR CREATED IN ZION CITY.

Overseers Read a Letter Written to Dowie Two Years Ago.

UGLY INTIMATIONS ARE MADE

First Annetta Accused Among Other Things of Having Overdrawn His Accounts — Amicable Settlement May Yet Be Reached — Conferences to Be Resumed.

Chicago, April 18.—Attorneys for both parties to the Zion City controversy state that conferences will be resumed and that there are yet hopes that a basis for an amicable settlement will be reached.

A stir was created in Zion City when General Overseer Voliva produced the first of his documentary evidence by which he hopes to confound John Alexander Dowie and his followers who are endeavoring to regain control of Zion City. The instrument was a letter written and dated of April 13, 1904, and addressed to "Dr." Dowie, who was then in Zurich, Switzerland. The letter was signed by Overseers John G. Spelcher, Charles J. Bernard and Judge V. V. Barnes. In the document they warned Dowie that unless he changed his ways in the management of Zion City a clash was inevitable. They stated that from their examination of the conduct of the affairs of the colony it was evident that Dowie had overdrawn his account in the bank in Zion City; that he had received deposits when it was known that the bank was insolvent; that he had used funds otherwise than in accordance with the representations made by the stock contracts and certificates, and that the proof of the appropriation of large sums for his own personal use and for ends outside of the industries named would be tantamount to a conviction of embezzlement in any court of law. The letter further implored Dowie to exercise a rigid economy on the part of himself and his family, saying that expenditures to this end should be based on needs rather than upon a fictitious income.

There was a flutter throughout the big assemblage in the tabernacle and a craning of necks. When Deacon Brasfield read that section of the letter which said "There is no doubt for a moment that a failure to meet payments and an exposure of the true condition of things would land yourself and the cashier and general financial manager in jail very promptly," the audience signified its approval of the sentiment expressed by vigorous applause. The letter continued: "The standard of Zion can not be lower than that set by the business world outside. Your safest place will be here at home. There is but one country outside, and that is Chile, where you would be safe from the attacks that would be made and the situation here would be hazardous if you continue your policy."

Dowie spent a quiet day in this city and presided over simple Easter ceremonies, which were participated in by a few of his faithful followers at the Auditorium Annex.

INSURANCE EXPOSURES.

Small Policy-Holder Said to Have Been the Chief Sufferer.

New York, April 16.—A statement given out by the Equitable Life Assurance society says: "Investigation shows that the fears engendered by the developments of the year resulted in the lapsing of 27,385 policies for $1,000 or under, while only one policy for $250,000 was allowed to lapse. Of the entire volume of lapsed policies in the Equitable $4 per cent were for $3,000 or less." In commenting upon the results of his efforts to restore the standing of lapsed policy-holders, President Morton said: "My belief that the small policy-holder was the chief sufferer from the agitation and excitement regarding life insurance is now confirmed. The holders of policies of $5,000 and upwards are generally men of business experience. Through fear, based on misapprehension of the real facts, and often on misrepresentation, thousands of small policy-holders allowed their policies to lapse."

Foreigners Barred.

Constantinople, April 16.—A number of distinguished persons and tourists who had been presented to the sultan by the ambassadors of their respective countries were refused permission to witness the Semalik ceremony on the ground that lists containing the names of persons who desired to attend were not submitted for the sultan's approval at the usual time. Later Abdul Hamid sent his regrets to the ambassadors. His majesty recited the usual prayers at the Semalik, but accorded no audiences, although the Spanish and Roumanian ministers were present at the ceremony.

TRAIN RIDERS WERE NUMEROUS

"BLVDY MURDER" CLELAND STOLE COAL FROM R. & O. TRAIN.

No Racing on Newark Streets and Two Farmer Boys Got Fined.

The police officers had but little rest from the time they went on duty Saturday night until they left their beats Monday morning shortly before six o'clock. As a result of their work a big slate awaited Mayor McCleary Monday morning.

There was a squad of railroad officers at the police station to prosecute several offenders against the laws in which the railroads are directly interested. Several energetic young men, all of whom wished to make an impression on the court and said they were hunting work when their money ran out, were charged with train riding. Theodore Hartung, William Lewis, G. C. Coleman and Lou Reming each tried to ride without complying to the 2-cent fare law recently passed and were fined $5 and costs.

"Bring in 'Blvd Murder' Cleland," said the court. The reporters gasped and expected to see some Wild West specimen, but the most innocent and peaceable looking boy ever seen before the court answered to the name. He said his mother had at one time named him Robert but that he had almost forgotten it under the burden of the heavier pseudonym. He was charged with throwing coal from a R. & O. freight train and admitted that he was guilty. He was sentenced to ten days in jail and fined $5 and costs.

An Hungarian, who was still suffering from the effects of too much liquor imbibed Saturday night, was fined $7 and costs. He did not know what it meant but it didn't matter. He can crack stone just as well as though he understood perfectly.

Thomas O. Miller, aged 18 years, a resident of Oakland avenue, was in court with his mother. The two got together and fixed up an affidavit against U. G. Gregg charging him with selling liquor to a minor. Gregg is a saloon keeper at Eleventh and West Main streets and denied that he sold the liquor on the date mentioned but admitted that Miller had purchased liquor there before but said that the boy claimed to be 21 years old. The evidence was soon all in and Gregg was found guilty and fined $25 and costs.

The mayor stated that there were numerous complaints coming in about saloonists allowing minors to get "growlers" of beer in several saloons over the city. These will be brought in as fast as the evidence against them can be obtained and the practice will be broken up.

The chief advises all young men from the rural districts who own fast horses and are desirous of racing, to seek a race track or else tie their hats on tight before they start the first heat. Charles Parker and Charles Jones who comes from Eastern Licking county, raced with a bicyclist Sunday afternoon. Jones' hat blew off and the race was ended and the cop got both the fast "drivers" and they came to grief. Their fines were $500 and costs.

FATHER WAS SHOT BY INSANE SON

John Brown, a Prominent Farmer of Guernsey County, Was Badly Injured.

Cambridge, O., April 6.—John Brown, a prominent farmer living east of here, was shot by his son, William Brown. The family have noticed for some time signs of insanity in the young man, but have not taken steps to have him confined in an institution. The son imagined that there were burglars in the house and his father made the rounds of the premises with him to reassure him. As the father stepped from the front door into the yard, in front of the son, he shot at his father, the lead striking Mr. Brown in the left ankle and right foot. The father sank to the ground and the boy then called for assistance. Dr. Frame, who attended the injured man, asked the son why he had shot his father, and he said so that he (the father) might not get away. It is feared by the attending physician that the left foot must be amputated. The young man is 25 years of age.
